

Rules for Say Something

1. With your partner, decide who will say something first.
2. When you say something, you may do one of the following:
  - You can make a prediction.
  - You can ask a question.
  - You can make a comment.
  - You can make a connection.
3. If you can't do one of those four things, then you need to reread.