

One-Pager for Poetry
Staple this sheet to the BACK of your one-pager.

The purpose of a one-pager is to own what you are reading. We learn best when we can create our own patterns.

A one-pager connects the verbal and the visual; it connects the ideas in what you read to your thoughts. It connects words and images. The one-pager becomes a metaphor for the reading you have done.

Create the one-pager so that your audience will understand something about the reading from what you produce

Directions:

1. Use one sheet of paper (provided)
2. Carefully place the following on one side of the paper:
 - a. title of the poem (in quotation marks) and poet's name
 - b. at least 2 significant (and complete) quotations from the poem with the line #'s in parentheses following.
 - c. at least 3 key words that capture some significant aspect of the work (these need not be from the poem itself)
 - d. an illustration/picture/symbol that reflects a central image of the poem
 - e. an analysis of the poem in your own words, including what you learned from reading it (approximately 100 words).

Rubric:

- 90-100 These projects include all the required parts in a pleasing, artistic, colorful design. The analysis is thorough, thoughtful, and convincing. There are no distracting errors in spelling, punctuation, or grammar.
- 80-89 These projects also include all the required parts but are not as sophisticated or do not reflect as much care and concern as the above category. The analysis may not be as thorough or as convincing. There may be a few errors in spelling, punctuation, and grammar.
- 70-79 These projects lack some elements and/or are done in a merely perfunctory way to fulfill the assignment. The analysis is skimpy and/or more of a summary than an exposition. There may be several errors in spelling, punctuation, and grammar.
- 60-69 These projects reflect shoddy, careless work and/or are incomplete. The analysis is little more than a summary and/or is cursory in nature. There may be numerous errors in spelling, punctuation, and grammar.
