

Thank you letter writing project

You need to write some thank you letters (this will get you in practice for all those graduation gifts that will soon come your way).

Specifically, you need to brainstorm a list of five (5) adults here at Round Rock High School for whom you feel gratitude. Then, you need to write three of them a one-page (at least) letter, stating why you are grateful. Be specific. These letters need to be handwritten on nice paper (not notebook paper, not spiral paper, not lined paper of any kind. The paper does not need to be rose scented or have pictures of puppy dogs or hearts. Plain stationery is fine!).

You want these to be immaculate, free from error, and full of genuine thanks and affection. They are due on Monday, May 16th. Please bring them in unsealed envelopes (If you do not want me to read them, that is fine. I just have to check to see they have been written. After all you are being graded for the completion of this assignment). They need to be delivered either by you or by me (your choice).
