

Speed-Dating Review for AP English Literature

Directions: You will receive a prompt on an index card. You will have 3-5 minutes to "get acquainted" with it and discuss it with your partner. Examine its meaning, peer into its soul and decide how to "make conversation" with it for a prewrite. You don't have to actually write the essay, just flirt with the concepts, brainstorming and listing main points, books, and concrete examples you would use IF you had to spend 40 minutes writing (a serious commitment in terms of AP dating/writing).

At the end of 3-5 minutes, I will call time and you will pass the prompt on to the next student(s), receiving a new one in turn. After we have examined several prompts, we will stop and assess your responses.
